The GSK logo is rendered in a bold, white, sans-serif typeface. The letters are closely spaced, with the 'G' and 'S' having a distinctive, slightly rounded and blocky appearance. The 'K' is also bold and white, with a sharp, angular design. The logo is positioned on the left side of the image, set against a solid orange background that occupies the left half of the frame. A white, stylized arrow-like shape points from the right side of the logo towards the tagline on the right.
